

Rules and Regulations

1. The Grand Valley Area Rotary Clubs are the Organizer of the event.
2. Two numbers will be randomly assigned to each entry. Four two – ball combinations will identify the four winners. An entry whose two numbers correspond with those of two of the winning eight balls will be the winner of the corresponding prize.
3. The event will involve up to 200 balls, representing a maximum of 19,900 possible separate entries. Odds of winning depend on the total number of entries. For example, the odds of winning a prize if there are 5,000 entries will be 4 in 5,000.
4. The course will be fenced. Once released, the numbered balls will roll downhill solely by the force of gravity. A finish line trap will capture the first four two-ball pairs that will identify the four winning entries. Independent individuals will be engaged as referees to observe the event and identify winning entries. Rotarians are not eligible to win.
5. Balls will be released on the day, time, and location printed on your ticket stub, unless extenuating circumstances prevail. Any changes will be announced as soon as reasonably possible on the Rotary Snowball Sweepstakes Facebook Page.
6. Each entry shall be completely filled out and delivered to the Organizer at least one- hour prior to the race. There are a limited number of entries available and the event could be sold out. In the event of a sell out, people with entries made after the sell-out shall receive a return of their money.
7. No purchase is necessary in order to enter or win. The Organizer suggests a donation of at least $5 per entry for the benefit of the non-profit organizations in the Grand Junction area. One free entry per person may be made by filling out a written request on a 3" X 5" card with name, address, and phone number and presented, in person, to the Organizer at the weekly Rotary meeting of the Grand Junction Rotary club, at the Warehouse 2565 between 12 PM and 1:15 PM on any Wednesday prior to the race.
8. The winners will be announced following the event at Powderhorn, and posted on the event Facebook page. Entrants need not be present to win. Winners will be notified via telephone or email. Winners must provide valid identification to collect their prize.
